If the case had previously been dismissed for failure to pay the original filing fee, both the balance of the original filing fee and the reopening fee must be paid. The fee must be collected when the motion is filed to reopen a case in which the court did not enter a discharge. The fee is not applicable if the reopening is to correct an administrative error or for actions related to the debtor's discharge, specifically: (1) to permit a party to file a complaint to obtain a determination under Rule 4007(b), and, (2) when a creditor is violating the terms of the discharge under 11 U.S.C. § 524. The court may waive this fee under appropriate circumstances or may defer payment of the fee from trustees pending discovery of additional assets.
